Volume 18, 1971

ABBEY, HELEN: abstract, 336–337
Abortion: and socioeconomic status, 55–56, 60–62; and measured intelligence, 56, 59–60, 62–63; as birth control measure, 109–112; physicians' views of, 192–194
Actions of Alcohol, 331
Åland Islands: tapeto-retinal degeneration in (abs.), 102
American Eugenics Society, 203
Anglican clergy: mortality of, 165–176
Annual Review of Genetics, 225
Aristotle: on population quality, 84
Armendares, S.: abstract, 463
Aronson, Lester R.: review, 459–460
Arriaga, Eduardo E.: review, 231–233
Artificial insemination: and sex predetermination, 80–81
Assortative mating: in small populations 28, 29; for IQ and education, 130–131
Atlas of Mammalian Chromosomes, An, 325
Ayala, F. J.: abstract, 333

BAHR, G. F.: abstract, 335
Barbados: family planning in, 137–147
Bechofer, F.: review, 218–219
Behavior: perspectives for genetic analysis, 316; and biometrical genetic techniques, 318
Behavior genetics: symposium on, 439–440
Behavior Genetics Association, 315–318, 439
Bergsma, Daniel: review, 95–96
Bernstein, Marianne: comment on book review, 435–437
Biology and Ethics, 446–447
Biomedical research, 434
Birth control: effect of induced abortion, 109–112; effect of contraception on, 112–116. See also Contraception, Family Planning
Birth Control in America: The Career of Margaret Sanger, 90–91
Birth rate: effect of sex predetermination on, 117–118; and family size, 119–120; and marriage age in India, 200–202
Birth weight: and perinatal mortality, 158, 163; in Quebec, Canada, 159–163
Blacks: pigmentation of (abs.), 103; marriage and fertility in British West Indies (abs.), 104–105; marital stability of (abs.), 105–106; contraception among (abs.), 106; population dynamics of, 339; growth rate of, 342–344, 360; changing location of, 344–347; residential segregation of, 347; educational attainment of, 347–349, 368; employment of, 349–354; income trends among, 354–357; inter-regional migration of, 360–362, 367; urbanization of, 362–364; characteristics of migrants among, 364–366; mortality among, 373–377, 380–382, 384–385; morbidity among, 377–382, 384–385; and demographic analyses, 387–396; and timing of first birth (abs.), 464
Blood groups: and selection (abs.), 463
Bordjadze, V. K.: abstract, 464
Brazil: Cayapo Indians of, 148–157
British West Indies: marriage and fertility in (abs.), 104–105
Bulmer, M. G.: abstract, 462
Burch, Philip R.: review, 97–98

CASPERSSON, T.: abstract, 334
Cavan, Ruth Shonie: abstract, 465
Cayapo Indians: described, 148–156; age and sex distribution of, 151–153; fertility and morality of, 153–155; genetic structure of, 155–156
Census: race classifications in, 387–389, 391, 392; sample size and data interpretation in, 431–433
Chance, Michael: review, 327–328
Chapple, Eliot D.: review, 322–323
Childlessness: correlates of voluntary, 277–284; classification of voluntary and involuntary, 288; among whites and nonwhites, 285–291; and age at first marriage, 292–294
Chile: migration to Valparaíso, 305–310
Chromosome: identification of in Downs syndrome (abs.), 102; translocation of (abs.), 102; abnormalities of with malnutrition (abs.), 463; staining of in Downs syndrome (abs.), 463; pachytene analysis of human (abs.), 464
Clifford, William B., II: abstract, 337
Coitus: and oral contraception, 40–44; intermenstrum distribution of (abs.), 466
Color Blindness: An Evolutionary Approach, 229
Congenital hip disease: in relatives of afflicted, 10–12, 13, 16; sex ratio in, 13–14; and breech malposition, 14–15; maternal effect in, 15; and season of birth, 15
Congenital malformations: movements in time, 422–426; movements in space, 426–429. See also Congenital hip disease
Consanguineous marriage: computer simulation of (abs.), 103
Contraception: acceptors of, 1–2; assumptions about, 5–8; and libido, 40–41; and sexual frequency, 41–44; among urban blacks (abs.), 106; effectiveness in birth control, 112–116; and childspacing, 117–118. See also Birth control, Family planning
Coombs, Lolagene C.: abstract, 241–242
Corporal development: of Greek school children, 397–401; of Greek university students, 403–404
Creativity, 321–322

XUM

Mental retardation: heritability of, S4, S45–S47; and reproduction rate of affected, S5, S45; and overripe egg, S14; in offspring of PKU women, S19–S24, S27; and family planning, S58; Minnesota study of described, S43–S44; rate in population, S42; population sources of S47–S49; and contraception, S122–S123, S125; and sterilization, S123–S124
Methadone: and menstruation, S37, S39; in pregnant women, S38, S39
Morphine: and ovulation, S34; and pregnancy, S36; and proteins, S36

NARCOTICS ADDICTS: fertility of, S34, S37, S41; maternal complications in, S35, S36, S37; detoxification program for, S35; methadone maintenance program for, S35–S36, S37, S38; effects on offspring of, S34, S36, S38, S39; and abortion, S41
Neurosis: and father's social class, S61–S62; and marital status, S64, S65, S66, S67, S81, S82, S88, S89, S90, S91; and reproduction, S68, S71, S72

OVA: and prenatal selection, S4–S5; overripeness and human defects, S10, S14; causes of overripeness of, S16–S17; study methods for, S17–S18
Ovulation: and morphine, S34; and methadone, S39

PERSONALITY DISORDERS: and father's social class, S61–S62; and marital status, S64, S65, S66, S67, S72, S83, S88, S89; and reproduction, S68, S69, S71, S72; perinatal research program on, S104–S106; maternal complications in, S107–S110, S111, S112; characteristics of high-risk infants, S110–S112
Phenylketonuria: offspring of affected Negro woman, S19–S22; dietary controls in, S20, S22, S27, S28, S30, S32; serum levels in pregnant affected, S20, S21–S22, S23, S24, S27, S28, S30–S31; effects on offspring of affected, S22–S24; metabolic aspects of, S24–S25; fetal damage mechanisms in, S25–S27; and treatment during pregnancy, S27–S28; and breast feeding, S28, S31; ascertainment of, S31–S32; and family planning, S32
Physician: role of in patient care, S120–S121, S125; and consent procedures, S132–S133
Population: world growth of, S2–S3; and changes in IQ, S42, S50–S55 and mental retardation sources, S47–S49; and selection for intelligence, S56–S57; marital status of in England and Wales, S85. See also Population policy
